

PRESS RELEASE

GDF SUEZ

April 19, 2013

GDF SUEZ is delighted with the release of Tanguy Moulin-Fournier and his family

After 2 agonizing months of waiting, we are celebrating the release of Tanguy and his family and acknowledge the efforts of the French, Cameroonian and Nigerian authorities that led to this happy result.

It is a day of relief and joy for GDF SUEZ and all its employees.

Gérard Mestrallet is on the way to Cameroon with the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, Laurent Fabius.

About GDF SUEZ

GDF SUEZ develops its businesses (electricity, natural gas, services) around a model based on responsible growth to take up today's major energy and environmental challenges: meeting energy needs, ensuring the security of supply, fighting against climate change and maximizing the use of resources. The Group provides highly efficient and innovative solutions to individuals, cities and businesses by relying on diversified gas-supply sources, flexible and low-emission power generation as well as unique expertise in four key sectors: liquefied natural gas, energy efficiency services, independent power production and environmental services. GDF SUEZ employs 219,300 people worldwide and achieved revenues of €97 billion in 2012. The Group is listed on the Paris, Brussels and Luxembourg stock exchanges and is represented in the main international indices: CAC 40, BEL 20, DJ Euro Stoxx 50, Euronext 100, FTSE Eurotop 100, MSCI Europe, ASPI Eurozone, Vigeo World 120, Vigeo Europe 120 and Vigeo France 20.
