Pierre Deheunynck will be appointed Executive Vice President, in charge of Group Human Resources, in the summer of 2016

As of 1 February 2016, Pierre Deheunynck is appointed Vice President of the ENGIE Human Resources.

He will be appointed ENGIE Executive Vice President, in charge of Group Human Resources, in the summer of 2016. He will replace Henri Ducré, who will support Isabelle Kocher and the operational Executive Vice Presidents in succeeding the Group transformation.

Pierre Deheunynck has a Master Degree in Social Law from Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne. From 1986 to 2005, he has held different positions within the Danone group, as head of human resources of different entities and departments. In 2005, he became Danone Senior Vice President People & Organisation Development. Since 2009, he has been Senior Executive Vice President Human Resources of the Crédit Agricole group.

About ENGIE

ENGIE develops its businesses (power, natural gas, energy services) around a model based on responsible growth to take on the major challenges of energy's transition to a low-carbon economy: access to sustainable energy, climate-change mitigation and adaptation and the rational use of resources. The Group provides individuals, cities and businesses with highly efficient and innovative solutions largely based on its expertise in four key sectors: renewable energy, energy efficiency, liquefied natural gas and digital technology. ENGIE employs 152,900 people worldwide and achieved revenues of €74.7 billion in 2014. The Group is listed on the Paris and Brussels stock exchanges (ENGI) and is represented in the main international indices: CAC 40, BEL 20, DJ Euro Stoxx 50, Euronext 100, FTSE Eurotop 100, MSCI Europe, DJSI World, DJSI Europe and Euronext Vigeo (World 120, Eurozone 120, Europe 120 and France 20).
